A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Fidalgo Island Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning and salting of salmon for commercial purposes at Port Graham, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate seven (7) traps driven on the following sites on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet: One at Flat Island, three at Bluff Point, one at Cooper Creek, and two at Salmato Beach, all the above as listed in the application of the Company dated November 21, 1922, but the English Bay trapsite, leased from the Northwestern Fisheries Company during the season of 1922 shall not be again occupied. Request for an additional trap at Tyonek is denied. No gill net permits will be issued to the company, but fish may be purchased from any individuals obtaining permits to fish for salmon.

2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed forty thousand (40,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT MOON

Secretary of Commerce.
